Sir,

Subject - Allowance for turning the radio installed in Sri Rahula Sattya Pansala Office of

In enclosing herewith a copy of the extract of the resolution of the Municipal Council, Galle passed at the meeting held on 17-12-1948 on the matter mentioned above, I write to state that the Municipal Council, Galle have accepted the offer of a donation of Rs 2000/- offered by Sri D. Wijesinghe Seneviratne Esq., installed a radio in Sri Rahula Sattya Pansala in commemoration of the Indian Independence day the 15th August 1947. The radio is purchased with a guarantee of two years and is subjected to the condition that all repairs during that period should be attended to free of cost by the mechanic from whom it was purchased. The work of turning the radio is entrusted to Sri D. Wijesinghe the mechanic on an allowance of Rs 15/- per month for a period of two years. The sanctioned allowance is Rs 10/- per month for another radio which is installed in the Town Hall, the turning of the latter radio being entrusted to a clerk of the office. This extra allowance of Rs 15/- for the former radio has been resolved by the Council as personal to Sri D. Wijesinghe for a period of two years to avoid a precedent. The turning work is reported to be attended to by Sri D. Wijesinghe from 15-8-1947.

In the sanctioned budget of the Municipality for the current year the provision made is Rs 10/- per month. The allowance at Rs 15/- per month from 15-8-1947 for 1947-48 and the allowance of Rs 5/- over the sanctioned provision during 48-49 which together work out to Rs 217-8-0 has to be sanctioned out of the closer balance.

I therefore request to obtain early orders of Government for the sanction of the allowance as well as for meeting the extra expenditure entailed above out of the closer balance.

Yours to
